The Integrity Summit on 14 September was attended by more than 500 executives of the private sector and a delegation of high-level government officials led by President Benigno Aquino III.

President Aquino set the tone from the top and lauded the efforts of the private sector to cultivate a culture of integrity within its ranks. The judicial and legislative branches were represented by no less than the Supreme Court Chief Justice Corona and House Speaker Sonny Belmonte, respectively, who both echoed their support for promoting integrity in government and the private sector.
